STABLE COMPARISONS AS OBJECTS OF THE LINGUISTIC CULTUROLOGY

(Abstract)

The present article is a short overview with a focus on specific studies, exemplary of the topic stable comparisons, taken as a reference point for future linguistic and linguoculturological study in two Slavic languages – Bulgarian and Russian. The article observes the understanding of the term “stable comparisons”, some structural and classification properties, basic principles and controversial moments, such as their inclusion to the phraseological periphery and the belonging of one or another type of comparisons to this term, presented in the works of V. Kyuvlieva-Mishaykova, V. M. Ogoltsev, B. Yanev, P. Legurska and other researchers.
